DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

✓ Applicant's election without traverse of Group II, claims 12-22 in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged. The additional species requirement in paper number 5 has been withdrawn. Therefore, claims 1-11 have been withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to a non-elected invention, and claims 12-22 are pending in the application.

Claim Objections

✓ Claims 12-16 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 12, line 5, the terminology, "separate transmitter" lacks antecedent basis; and it is suggested the language be changed to --a separate transmitter--. In claim 14, line 5, the language, "each separate transmitter", lacks proper antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 12-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beard et al. '800.

Beard et al. disclose a communication system between a vending machine, service delivery vehicle, and a central management location (see, for example, columns 1 and 2)

Art Unit: 3627

Beard et al. lack the teaching of specific steps and details associated with the communication and vending servicing system.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Beard et al. to incorporate specific details and steps, that are well known in the communications and vending arts, into the system of Beard, in order to achieve a desired outcome or result.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
